PROGRAM REPORT

Title of the Program: "Basics of Computer and Programming"

Date: 05 Feb 2024 to 10 Feb 2024

Details of Participants: 184

Name of the Organizations details: Late .G. N. Sapkal college of Engineering.

Details of Resource Person: Prof. Snehal H. Gorde

Description of the Program:

For first year students, the Department of Applied Science Organized a 30 hour Add-On program on "Basics of Computer and Programming". The program's goal is to providing the students with an insight into Basics of Computer and Programming design which would help them in Higher studies and campus interviews. Prof. Snehal Gorde, Resource person, reviewed several facts of computer and give Practical demonstration of Programming.

Program Objectives:

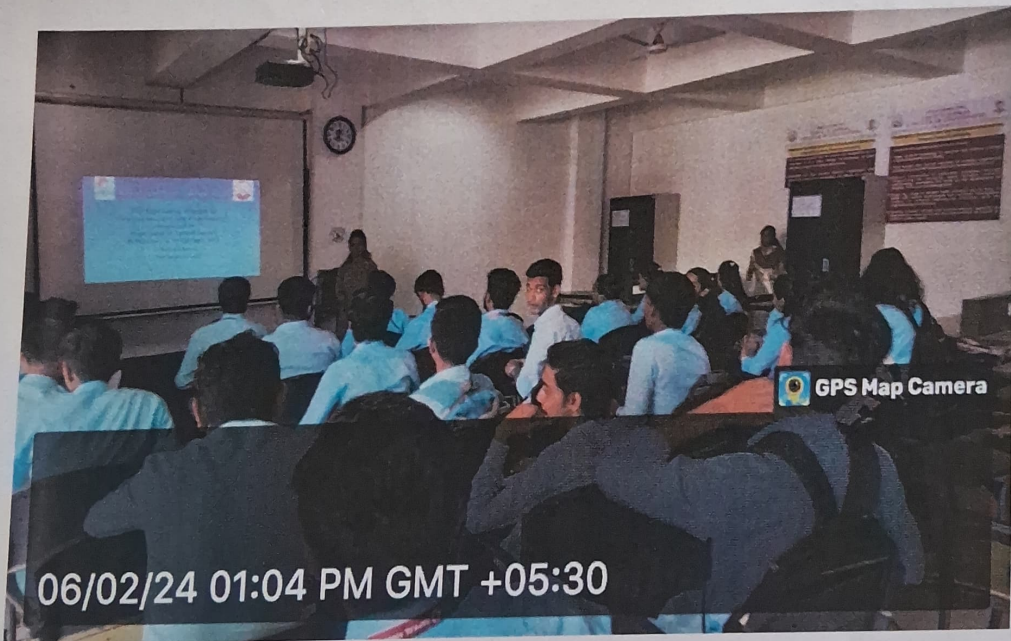

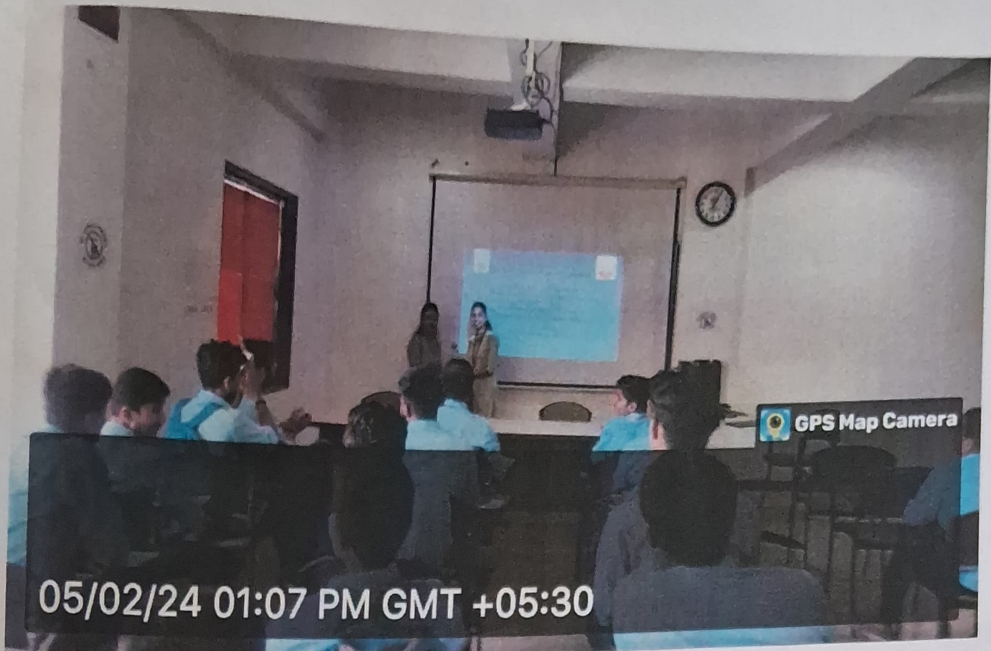

- 1) Students are aware about the Basics of Computer and Programming.
- 2) Courses are specially designed to equip the candidates with additional skills.
- 3) It is designed in such a way that it provides basic as well as some glimpses of advanced level knowledge of computers.
- 4) The various topics covered in this computer course include computer fundamentals, Microsoft Soft Office, programming languages, programming with Excel etc.
- 5) This course may be helpful for those students who want to find office jobs along with learning extra skills that enhance their quality of work.
- 6) The program is effective for students and basic concepts understanding in simple way
