Briefs of Seminar:

Two day Workshop on Smart Data Analytics was organized on 04th and 05th

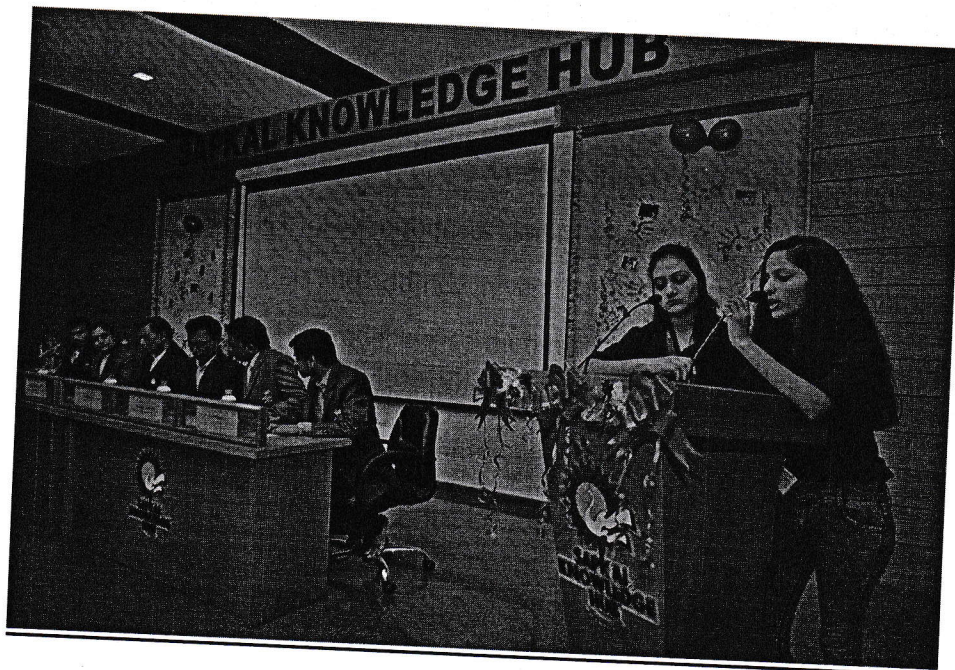

January 2019 in the Department of Computer Engineering of Late G.N. Sapkal College of Engineering, Nashik, introduces Smart Data as a new tool for business. Big Data gets turned into Smart Data when it is collected and optimized, using specific needs of the industry and the individual organization.

The seminar was started with welcome speech by the Prof. N. R. Wankhade (Head of department). Principal Prof. (Dr.) S. B. Bagal gives introductory speech, Workshop Coordinator Prof. J. P. Kakad give Vote of Thanks.

The session of the seminar was started by Mr. Raviraj Joshi, Nashik and he briefed about the need of Smart data for business. He introduces Smart data as a digital technology with a huge potential to change business models and add new revenue streams to the Organization.

Mr. Kushal Londha gives introduction to the immense potential of the Smart data Analytics. Also explained its data driven decision making, decision that boost the revenue, increases margins, and enable rapid responses to changing market dynamics.
